

Colossians 1

¹From Paul, chosen by God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from Timothy, who is also a follower.

²To God's people who live in Colossae and are faithful followers of Christ.

I pray that God our Father will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

A Prayer of Thanks

³Each time we pray for you, we thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴We have heard of your faith in Christ and of your love for all of God's people, ⁵because what you hope for is kept safe for you in heaven. You first heard about this hope when you believed the true message, which is the good news.

⁶The good news is spreading all over the world with great success. It has spread in that same way among you, ever since the first day you learned the truth about God's wonderful kindness

⁷from our good friend Epaphras. He works together with us for Christ and is a faithful worker for you. ^[a]

⁸He is also the one who told us about the love that God's Spirit has given you.

The Person and Work of Christ

⁹We have not stopped praying for you since the first day we heard about you. In fact, we always pray that God will show you everything he wants you to do and that you may have all the wisdom and understanding that his Spirit gives.

¹⁰Then you will live a life that honors the Lord, and you will always please him by doing good deeds. You will come to know God even better.

¹¹His glorious power will make you patient and strong enough to endure anything, and you will be truly happy.

¹²I pray that you will be grateful to God for letting you ^[b] have part in what he has promised his people in the kingdom of light.

¹³God rescued us from the dark power of Satan and brought us into the kingdom of his dear Son, ¹⁴who forgives our sins and sets us free. ¹⁵Christ is exactly like God, who cannot be seen. He is the first-born Son, superior to all creation. ¹⁶Everything was created by him, everything in heaven and on earth, everything seen and unseen, including all forces and powers, and all rulers and authorities.

All things were created by God's Son, and everything was made for him. ¹⁷God's Son was before all else, and by him everything is held together. ¹⁸He is the head of his body, which is the church. He is the very beginning, the first to be raised from death, so that he would be above all others. ¹⁹God himself was pleased to live fully in his Son. ²⁰And God was pleased for him to make peace by sacrificing his blood on the cross, so that all beings in heaven and on earth would be brought back to God.

²¹You used to be far from God. Your thoughts made you his enemies, and you did evil things.

²²But his Son became a human and died. So God made peace with you, and now he lets you stand in his presence as people who are holy and faultless and innocent.

²³But you must stay deeply rooted and firm in your faith. You must not give up the hope you received when you heard the good news. It was preached to everyone on earth, and I myself have become a servant of this message.

Paul's Service to the Church

²⁴I am glad that I can suffer for you. I am pleased also that in my own body I can continue ^[c] the suffering of Christ for his body, the church.

²⁵God's plan was to make me a servant of his church and to send me to preach his complete message to you.

²⁶For ages and ages this message was kept secret from everyone, but now it has been explained to God's people.

²⁷God did this because he wanted you Gentiles to understand his wonderful and glorious mystery. And the mystery is that Christ lives in you, and he is your hope of sharing in God's glory.

²⁸We announce the message about Christ, and we use all our wisdom to warn and teach everyone, so that all of Christ's followers will grow and become mature.

²⁹That's why I work so hard and use the mighty power he gives me.

Colossians 2

¹I want you to know what a struggle I am going through for you, for God's people at Laodicea, and for all of those followers who have never met me.

²I do it to encourage them. Then as their hearts are joined together in love, they will be wonderfully blessed with complete understanding. And they will truly know Christ. Not only is he the key to God's mystery,

³but all wisdom and knowledge are hidden away in him.

⁴I tell you these things to keep you from being fooled by fancy talk.

⁵Even though I am not with you, I keep thinking about you. I am glad to know that you are living as you should and that your faith in Christ is strong.

Christ Brings Real Life

⁶You have accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord. Now keep on following him.

⁷Plant your roots in Christ and let him be the foundation for your life. Be strong in your faith, just as you were taught. And be grateful.

⁸Don't let anyone fool you by using senseless arguments. These arguments may sound wise, but they are only human teachings. They come from the powers of this world ^[a] and not from Christ. ⁹God lives fully in Christ.

¹⁰And you are fully grown because you belong to Christ, who is over every power and authority.

¹¹Christ has also taken away your selfish desires, just as circumcision removes flesh from the body.

¹²And when you were baptized, it was the same as being buried with Christ. Then you were raised to life because you had faith in the power of God, who raised Christ from death.

¹³You were dead, because you were sinful and were not God's people. But God let Christ make you ^[b] alive, when he forgave all our sins.

¹⁴God wiped out the charges that were against us for disobeying the Law of Moses. He took them away and nailed them to the cross.

¹⁵There Christ defeated all powers and forces. He let the whole world see them being led away as prisoners when he celebrated his victory.

¹⁶Don't let anyone tell you what you must eat or drink. Don't let them say that you must celebrate the New Moon festival, the Sabbath, or any other festival.

¹⁷These things are only a shadow of what was to come. But Christ is real!

¹⁸Don't be cheated by people who make a show of acting humble and who worship angels. ^[c] They brag about seeing visions. But it is all nonsense, because their minds are filled with selfish desires.

¹⁹They are no longer part of Christ, who is the head of the whole body. Christ gives the body its strength, and he uses its joints and muscles to hold it together, as it grows by the power of God.

Christ Brings New Life

²⁰You died with Christ. Now the forces of the universe ^[d] don't have any power over you. Why do you live as if you had to obey such rules as,

²¹"Don't handle this. Don't taste that. Don't touch this."?

²²After these things are used, they are no longer good for anything. So why be bothered with the rules that humans have made up?

²³Obedying these rules may seem to be the smart thing to do. They appear to make you love God more and to be very humble and to have control over your body. But they don't really have any power over our desires.

Footnotes:

- a. Colossians 2:8 powers of this world: Spirits and unseen forces were thought to control human lives and were believed to be connected with the movements of the stars.
- b. Colossians 2:13 you: See the note at 1.7.
- c. Colossians 2:18 worship angels: Or "worship with angels (in visions of heaven)."

Colossians 3

¹You have been raised to life with Christ. Now set your heart on what is in heaven, where Christ rules at God's right side. ^[a]

²Think about what is up there, not about what is here on earth.

³You died, which means that your life is hidden with Christ, who sits beside God.

⁴Christ gives meaning to your ^[b] life, and when he appears, you will also appear with him in glory.

⁵Don't be controlled by your body. Kill every desire for the wrong kind of sex. Don't be immoral or indecent or have evil thoughts. Don't be greedy, which is the same as worshiping idols.

⁶God is angry with people who disobey him by doing ^[c] these things.

⁷And that is exactly what you did, when you lived among people who behaved in this way.

⁸But now you must stop doing such things. You must quit being angry, hateful, and evil. You must no longer say insulting or cruel things about others.

⁹And stop lying to each other. You have given up your old way of life with its habits.

¹⁰Each of you is now a new person. You are becoming more and more like your Creator, and you will understand him better.

¹¹It doesn't matter if you are a Greek or a Jew, or if you are circumcised or not. You may even be a barbarian or a Scythian, ^[d] and you may be a slave or a free person. Yet Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

¹²God loves you and has chosen you as his own special people. So be gentle, kind, humble, meek, and patient.

¹³Put up with each other, and forgive anyone who does you wrong, just as Christ has forgiven you.

¹⁴Love is more important than anything else. It is what ties everything completely together.

¹⁵Each one of you is part of the body of Christ, and you were chosen to live together in peace. So let the peace that comes from Christ control your thoughts. And be grateful.

¹⁶Let the message about Christ completely fill your lives, while you use all your wisdom to teach and instruct each other. With thankful hearts, sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

¹⁷Whatever you say or do should be done in the name of the Lord Jesus, as you give thanks to God the Father because of him.

Some Rules for Christian Living

¹⁸A wife must put her husband first. This is her duty as a follower of the Lord.

¹⁹A husband must love his wife and not abuse her.

²⁰Children must always obey their parents. This pleases the Lord.

²¹Parents, don't be hard on your children. If you are, they might give up.

²²Slaves, you must always obey your earthly masters. Try to please them at all times, and not just when you think they are watching. Honor the Lord and serve your masters with your whole heart.

²³Do your work willingly, as though you were serving the Lord himself, and not just your earthly master.

²⁴In fact, the Lord Christ is the one you are really serving, and you know that he will reward you.

²⁵But Christ has no favorites! He will punish evil people, just as they deserve.

Footnotes:

- a. Colossians 3:1 right side: The place of power and honor.
- b. Colossians 3:4 your: Some manuscripts have " our."

- c. Colossians 3:6 people who disobey him by doing: Some manuscripts do not have these words.
- d. Colossians 3:11 a barbarian or a Scythian: Barbarians were people who could not speak Greek and would be in the lower class of society. Scythians were people who were known for their cruelty.

Colossians 4

¹Slave owners, be fair and honest with your slaves. Don't forget that you have a Master in heaven.

²Never give up praying. And when you pray, keep alert and be thankful.

³Be sure to pray that God will make a way for us to spread his message and explain the mystery about Christ, even though I am in jail for doing this.

⁴Please pray that I will make the message as clear as possible.

⁵When you are with unbelievers, always make good use of the time.

⁶Be pleasant and hold their interest when you speak the message. Choose your words carefully and be ready to give answers to anyone who asks questions.

Final Greetings

⁷Tychicus is the dear friend, who faithfully works and serves the Lord with us, and he will give you the news about me.

⁸I am sending him to cheer you up by telling you how we are getting along.

⁹Onesimus, that dear and faithful follower from your own group, is coming with him. The two of them will tell you everything that has happened here.

¹⁰Aristarchus is in jail with me. He sends greetings to you, and so does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have already been told to welcome Mark, if he visits you.

¹¹Jesus, who is known as Justus, sends his greetings. These three men are the only Jewish followers who have worked with me for the kingdom of God. They have given me much comfort.

¹²Your own Epaphras, who serves Christ Jesus, sends his greetings. He always prays hard that you may fully know what the Lord wants you to do and that you may do it completely.

¹³I have seen how much trouble he has gone through for you and for the followers in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

¹⁴Our dear doctor Luke sends you his greetings, and so does Demas.

¹⁵Give my greetings to the followers at Laodicea, especially to Nympha and the church that meets in her home.

¹⁶After this letter has been read to your people, be sure to have it read in the church at Laodicea. And you should read the letter that I have sent to them. ^[a]

¹⁷Remind Archippus to do the work that the Lord has given him to do.

¹⁸I am signing this letter myself: PAUL.

Don't forget that I am in jail.

I pray that God will be kind to you.

- a. Colossians 4:16 the letter that I have sent to them: This is the only mention of the letter to the church at Laodicea.
